My Darling Mother, —

I am

wondering if you & Dad are safely
home again & if you are feeling
well & happy. How sweetheart please
don't have all the family doesn't please don't tie you all

out - I never knew
any one could be so comforting
as Mrs Porter's Chink
Mrs Porter looks better than I have ever seen her. You had a grand time.

Now for real news
we left Treasure Island
on the afternoon
boat & came down

Squawhush where we waited till 1.30 A. M. The scenery from Dawn on was wonderful & we do want to bring you up here some year soon perhaps next.

~~Robert~~ Mother & Dad are the salt of the earth really & only wanted you to see the lovely way they welcomed me all with open arms - and dear sweet Aunt Sarah is a darling & so & reminds me of Grandma every minute her hands feel like Grandma's only she has every faculty as bright as a dollar. A young woman hopped to church in her black silk dress as grandma always did & reads her bible

by the hour.

Bob's Mother is just a darling lovely to look at as I said to Bob last night Bob's you Mother would graze any occasion
she is very tall & very well built snowy
hair & big brown
eyes I can't do enough

for us & such things that she certainly is a wonderful cook & Bob & I had a dear
quiet hardworking
little man a councillor head of the church
superintendent of the Sunday School
really loves me
now I believe dear I can't write but will tell you all when

~~top of my box + my~~ I get home - this house is the most immaculate place I have ever been in.
More later

Recd. I feel see
Saw
Thurs day

9.30 -
Sweet Petrus have just come in from a 20 mile drive to Challott through lovely country but so primitive - Father Fennell gave me a stunning pair of brown shoes - He has a fine shop & banked $4,000 last year they will leave this country before long & retire. They are so much nicer than I thought -
It's wonderful Dad is better give him lots of love & hugs for you dear Sweet Petrus P.S. a letter came here today Dorothy saying to meet Helen & Dorothy through last
